

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

James W. Duncan, one of the witnesses summoned to testify in behalf of Capt. Wirz, having been identified as the most prominent of Wirz's assistants, was arrested on Thursday last, by order of Major General Augur, and sent to the Old Capitol.

The number of prisoners in the Old Capitol diminishes daily, and yesterday there were only forty-eight prisoners, there confined.

Secretary Welles was attending to the duties of his office yesterday, having returned from Connecticut on the previous day.

The President's daughter, Mrs. Patterson, whom we mentioned yesterday as being quite ill, was yesterday much improved in health.

The North Carolina Episcopal Convention, in session at Raleigh, has adopted a report favoring union with the Episcopal Church North, and elected delegates to the General Convention which meets in October at Philadelphia. It also adopted a report to the effect that the whites should now aid the colored people in having separate churches, Sunday schools, and preachers of their own color, and that these colored preachers should be fitted for such positions.

The harvest in various parts of Europe seems to be abundant, and there is no likelihood of bread being high priced.

Theresa Kossuth, the wife of the Hungarian exile, died at Turin on the 1st instant. She was to be buried in the English Protestant Cemetery at Genoa, by the side of her only daughter, who died three years ago.

The Republican State Convention, at Syracuse, New York, passed yesterday resolutions similar in their general tenor to those previously adopted by the Democratic Convention of the same State, which met at Albany. The principal point of departure between the two sets of resolutions was one in which the Republicans covertly advocate negro suffrage.

The Chicago Tribune, a radical Republican paper, denounces the policy of President Johnson, in regard to Mississippi, as calculated to disgrace the Republican party morally, and overthrow it politically.
